

Speaker/Guest Teacher

October 2, 2019

Speaker: Fred Blonigen:

Living the Catholic Faith in a Secular Age: An Introduction to the Fundamental Principles of Christian Morality

Frederick Blonigen is a member of St. Anthony's parish in St. Cloud. He recently retired from St. Agnes High School, St. Paul, where he was chairman of and instructor in the Theology Department for thirty-two years.

In 1986 at St. Agnes, he started the first high school prolife club in the Archdiocese of St. Paul/Minneapolis, a club which over thirty years later, is the largest extracurricular organization in the school. For fifteen years Mr. Blonigen taught religious education at various parishes in St. Cloud. The past two years he has been teaching adult religious education classes at Watkins and Eden Valley, in parishes where his nephew, Fr. Aaron Nett, is Pastor.

Mr. Blonigen was a long time board member of Catholic Parents Online, an organization supporting Catholic education, and is the author of many articles and book reviews on Catholic topics. He has a passion for teaching and defending the Catholic faith.