Fr. Michael Schmitz is the Director of Youth and Young Adult Ministry in the Diocese of Duluth. His passionate faith and his anointed preaching inspires and engages the minds and hearts of the young and young at heart.

Death, judgment, heaven, and hell—the four last things—are popular enough topics among Christians discussing the end times; but there's more to these things than just our own personal end.

Fr. Mike will explain how, as the Catechism teaches, in the Last Judgment, “the ultimate meaning of the whole work of creation and of the entire economy of salvation” will be made known to us (CCC 1040). All the good and evil you and I have done will also become known. Fr. Mike's perspective on this reality is both fascinating and humbling.

This event includes Mass with contemporary music, energetic crowds, followed by a powerful presentation. Lifeline is focused on giving 8-12th graders in the Minnesota area the chance to experience the beauty of Mass with their peers.
